ONE

CITY ROAD LIVING

Captivating, creative and constantly changing, EC1 is renowned for its organic, evolutionary nature.

This is where the serenity of Regent's Canal meets the buzz of a burgeoning technology industry. Where the industrial aesthetic of the nineteenth century is being transformed into twenty-first century living. All the while retaining a natural beauty that offers a welcome retreat for those who know where to find quiet spots such as City Road Basin.

This is the starting point for discovery as it has been for centuries. Since City Road and the canal were built, EC1 has been a hub from which to enjoy Clerkenwell's leafy back lanes, Angel's shopping streets and Shoreditch's avant-garde culture.

Your journey begins here.

A romantic couple is walking along a canal in Venice during the golden hour of sunset. The woman, with long blonde hair and sunglasses on her head, is wearing a light-colored trench coat and is looking back over her shoulder at the man. The man, with dark hair, is wearing a maroon sweater and is looking forward. They are walking on a stone path next to the canal. In the background, there are lush green trees, a stone bridge, and a small boat with people on it. The sun is low in the sky, creating a warm, golden glow and long shadows. The overall mood is romantic and peaceful.

ROAD

FOR THOSE THAT LIVE HERE, CITY ROAD IS A TREASURED HAVEN. IT IS ALSO A CENTRAL POINT FROM WHICH TO EXPLORE EC1 IN EVERY DIRECTION.

HEADING OFF TOWARDS ONE POINT OF THE COMPASS WILL LEAD YOU TO A NEIGHBOURHOOD THAT IS DRAMATICALLY DIFFERENT TO THE OTHERS AROUND IT AND EACH OF THESE NEIGHBOURHOODS HAS ITS OWN HIDDEN CURIOSITIES - GALLERIES, GOOD RESTAURANTS, GREAT PUBS - AS WELL AS TRACES OF THE WATER THAT MAKE THIS SUCH A SINGULAR DESTINATION.

A person wearing a grey blazer and dark trousers is holding a red vintage bicycle. A brown leather bag is slung over their shoulder. The background is a blurred street scene.

With Tech Roundabout just around the corner, the area is set to become the centre of a key cycle route that will connect north London with the Square Mile. With hundreds of TfL Cycle Hire bikes within easy reach, City Road is a place that is perfect for cycle enthusiasts.

This map shows TFL cycle hire stations within 1 kilometre of the City Road area.

Top Gear

London is enjoying something of an emerging reputation as a city of fitness fanatics post 2012 Olympics. But it has always been a city of cyclists.

Embracing the growing demand for customisation, London cycle shops are fast becoming boutique establishments. Instead of puncture repair kits and panniers, places like 'The Bicycle Man' cycle shop are catering to a more discerning urban customer. This is where tailor-made two-wheelers are lavished with love. 'The Bicycle Man' is by no means alone.

Retaining the ethos of the truly local business, you will find independently owned cycle shops everywhere you look – from Exmouth Market in the west to Bethnal Green Road in the east. If you would rather explore EC1 with a little more freedom then you will not have to go far to find a fixie or freewheel on which to ride.

PARESH VADHER
Barman,
The Jones Family Project

Set up by a group of friends, this independent restaurant and bar provides a selection of craft beers and fabulous cocktails.

Night Owl

Homemade velvet falernum, ysabel regina, olmeca infused chilli – not your usual cocktail ingredients. But perhaps that is the point.

EC1 has a growing reputation for some of the best nightspots in town. Forget the frippery of the West End. North and east of the City is where you will find young, creative mixologists with a penchant for the piquant. Cocktails are not just a side project for the people behind The Jones Family Project. They are an integral part of the experience.

It's the same elsewhere. Cocktails are categorised by pre- or post-Prohibition era ingredients at Nightjar - the entrance to which is an unmarked door off Old Street Roundabout. Through the Victorian-esque rabbit hole of Callooh Callay is where, on their nights off, the best cocktail mixers go to drink. Whether here or at McQueen, the Medcalf or Neo Barbican, the cocktail is king in EC1.

Own Make

If it is café culture you are looking for then you are in the right place – inspired, independent coffee houses and tea shops are springing up every day.

Makers Café is just one example of the worlds that often collide in EC1. Baristas, technologists and designer makers are the local heroes and they come together in perfect harmony at Shoreditch's self-declared "half maker-space, half café". Specialising in new manufacturing techniques, Makers Café suggests you grab a coffee from local stalwart La Marzocco and try your hand at producing your own 3D printed coffee cup or laser-cut coaster.

If you prefer to enjoy your hot drink at a cooler pace, then head to Ozone Coffee Roasters for a truly artisanal experience (they have their own roastery on-site). For a seat with a view, try Shoreditch Grind – a circular coffee shop and bakery in 1950s American style interior. And all of this without even venturing north towards Clerkenwell or Angel.

On Show

The streets surrounding City Road are dotted with galleries that reflect the idiosyncrasies of their neighbourhoods – from the surprises of Shoreditch to distinguished Clerkenwell and the more established Angel.

These gallery spaces are marked by unassuming doorways and discreet signs: Ancient and Modern, Arcade, Stuart Shave Modern Art. The latter, a deceptively large space next to St Luke's on Helmet Row, moved into EC1 recently from Fitzrovia and is always worth a visit.

It follows in distinguished footsteps. Victoria Miro Gallery, on Wharf Road between the City Road Basin and Wenlock Basin and one of the best galleries in London, made the move from Cork Street in Mayfair in 2000, citing the area's "buzz". Art is made here too and the area hosts a wealth of studios and creative workspaces, such as Cubitt Gallery, as well as by appointment-only gems like What Are You Looking At?

*When I see works of art in a gallery, I think of art as being not the part of the paint that covers up the raw emotion or whatever it is, but the part that funnels something.
If the voice is sincere, the picture is compelling.*
