Hackney Regeneration

Hackney is one of the biggest success stories of London's East End regeneration programme. As programmes to further improve and update the area continue to roll out over the next few years, house prices are predicted to rise at one of the fastest rates in London.

The tube also takes you to Old Street, or Silicon Roundabout as it's popularly known. Around 5,000 tech businesses, involving 250,000 entrepreneurs and employees are based there (including Amazon and Adobe), making it Europe's largest tech city.
