READING – A PLACE OF EXCELLENCE

Reading is a location where business and commerce prosper, where education is first-class and the standard of living is arguably among the best in the country.

Just 40 miles from London, Reading is the beating heart of the Thames Valley tech corridor. With one of the highest concentrations of digital businesses in the UK, it is a magnet for global corporations seeking world-class employees, great connections and welcoming communities. Reading offers all this and more.

Huntley Wharf lies right in the heart of everything Reading has to offer. A short walk brings you to the town centre and its amazing variety of shops, restaurants and entertainment venues. Its station lies on the direct line to London, and locations across the country, including the main international airports, are all within easy reach.

THE LOCATION

Reading has been called ‘a town with a big heart and big ambitions’
– and it’s easy to see why.*

Founded on the banks of the River Kennet and River Thames, Reading has a history dating back over 1,000 years. Its wealth was originally built on four ‘b’s – beer, bulbs, bricks and biscuits. Today, it has been transformed from its industrial roots, and is now one of the UK’s foremost technology hubs and the headquarters location of many leading multi-national corporations. It has excellent road, rail and air links to London and the rest of the country. And with a wealth of cultural, sporting, shopping and employment opportunities, as well as beautiful countryside close by, the town is a great place to call home.

For top brand names, head to the Oracle shopping centre, where you will find Apple, Hugo Boss, Reiss, Hobbs and House of Fraser, among many others. Nearby Broad Street is pedestrianised, allowing you to browse the many stores, including a large John Lewis, in comfort. Don't miss the branch of Waterstones bookshop in a converted chapel dating back to 1707.

SPOTLIGHT ON ENTERTAINMENT & SPORT

Theatre, music, comedy or sport – there is something to see, do or enjoy every day in Reading. Central to this rich cultural and entertainment choice is the Hexagon Theatre, where a lively year-round programme offers serious drama, pop and classical concerts, film festivals and children's shows. Smaller venues around the town, from arts centres to pubs, host comedy, jazz, live gigs and more.

The Reading Festival, one of the oldest and biggest rock and pop festivals in the country, is held annually in August at Richfield Avenue on the banks of the River Thames. Headline acts include the world's top names in music, and the event draws up to 90,000 people.

Sports lovers can watch Reading FC play home matches at the 24,000-seater Madejski Stadium, or take part in the annual Reading Half Marathon. The town also has its own rugby and hockey clubs, and a popular cycle and athletics track in Palmer Park, just round the corner from Huntley Wharf.

LOVE LIFE ON THE RIVER

From your front door you can explore a whole new world of riverside living. The River Kennet flows gently from its source in Wiltshire through Reading town centre and past Huntley Wharf. Wildlife flourishes here – freshwater fish, otters, kingfishers and dragonflies can all be spotted. Follow the riverside walk, perhaps taking in Blakes Lock and the Reading Museum, and soon you will reach the horseshoe bridge, designed by Isambard Kingdom Brunel in 1841. This is where the Kennet meets the mighty River Thames. Left or right along the leafy Thames Path leads you to the delightful Berkshire towns of Sonning and Wargrave, Pangbourne and Henley.

Reading's parks are a delight – green open spaces that bring the natural environment right to the heart of the town.

PARKS FOR ALL

Between Huntley Wharf and the station lies Forbury Gardens and the ruins of the 11th century Reading Abbey, burial place of King Henry I. This pretty floral park is dominated by the Maiwand Lion, a statue commemorating a famous battle of the same name in the 19th century.

Palmer Park, only 10 minutes from Huntley Wharf, has 21 acres of lawns and flowerbeds, children's play areas and an athletics, cycling track and gym.

Half a mile from Huntley Wharf is King's Meadow. On the banks of the River Thames, it is home to the Edwardian open air lido, recently restored to its former glory.

Under 25 minutes from Huntley Wharf are a number of parks and open spaces. Wellington Country Park offers an exciting family venue, lake, and beautiful parkland. Basildon Park National Trust is home to a stunning Georgian mansion surrounded by over 400 acres of parkland and walks. Beale Park is set on the River Thames with an excellent wildlife centre, nature trails, lakes, and gardens.

AROUND READING

Reading is the ideal base for enjoying sporting events, visiting historic towns and some of the most famous social occasions in the British social calendar.

If horseracing is your pleasure, then Royal Ascot is not to be missed. Polo takes place in Windsor Great Park, the beautiful grounds of Windsor Castle, and rowing at the annual Henley Regatta. Oxford is the place to visit for history and culture, while designer shopping is available at Bicester Village.

Or simply enjoy the wonderful parks and gardens that provide quiet tranquillity amid the hustle and bustle of this most iconic city.

BUILDING COMMUNITIES

At Berkeley new development is always about people. First and foremost, it is about transforming individual lives and building strong communities.

We create communities where people love to live, where they feel at home and can be themselves. Before planning even starts, we take the time to find out just what will make a wonderful community for the people who live on the development. Then we ensure we provide the right facilities and environment to make that happen.

Huntley Wharf is no exception. Here you will find amazing outdoor spaces where residents can meet, hold events that bring everyone together, relax by the riverside, enjoy an energetic workout or the simple peace of the gardens.

THE PLACE

*Huntley Wharf is so much more than a beautiful place to live.
Every aspect of the development has been shaped to create a thriving community of people whose wellbeing and happiness is at its heart.*

Berkeley specialises in making places where people love to live, work and relax; where they can get to know their neighbours, form friendships and share experiences. At Huntley Wharf, quality homes are surrounded by attractive green open spaces, landscaped gardens and a central riverside square that can be enjoyed by everyone.
There are a host of proposed amenities and facilities on site – café, nursery, gym, concierge service – all aimed at making residents' lives easier and more enjoyable.

The Berkeley Group has contributed £1.7bn to community facilities and affordable housing in the last five years

We are creating 219 acres of public realm and preserving or planting around 15,000 trees across the Berkeley Group developments

Huntley Wharf will create an enhanced central riverfront for everyone to enjoy

RIVERSIDE SQUARE

At the heart of Huntley Wharf is the Riverside Square, the perfect place to meet up with friends and neighbours, and to enjoy the river. This special area is ideal for community and public events – such as concerts, plays, open air screenings and weekend markets.

CAFÉ CULTURE & CONVENIENCE

You don't have to go all the way into town to pick up the best coffee around. A friendly café near the main entrance to Huntley Wharf will be great for grabbing a cup on the way to work, or for spending relaxing time with friends over a cappuccino and a delicious pastry.

If you are running short of kitchen basics, a convenience store will be on hand on site.

These glorious gardens are being designed by specialists in the craft of placemaking and in creating enduring, engaging and beautiful spaces. Embracing the natural environment and history of the site, their design proposal includes bespoke artworks and installations that reflect the very special character of Huntley Wharf.

EVERYTHING ON YOUR DOORSTEP

A year-round programme of community events and festivals – from the Children's Festival to the torchlit river procession – makes Reading an exhilarating place to join in, have fun and make friends. Community activities in the pipeline for the Riverside Square at Huntley Wharf may include artisan food markets, outdoor performances and seasonal social events.

CHILDREN’S NURSERY

A welcoming and social play environment awaits your child at the new purpose-built day nursery. Conveniently located just a stroll from your home, the nursery is a place where your little ones will be well taken care of by professionally trained staff.

FITNESS FOR ALL

Your daily workout is so close to home that it will be difficult to find an excuse to skip it. The proposed on-site gym will be equipped with state-of-the-art fitness equipment for a heart-pumping exercise session.

DESIGN WITH CHARACTER

Huntley Wharf has a unique character that is steeped in history, yet is contemporary in every way. The site's industrial past is embedded into the design and fabric of the buildings, ensuring that its heritage will live on, visible to future generations.

We understand that where you live should feel special to you, a place where you can be happy and that meets your lifestyle needs. We have therefore proposed dedicated amenities for residents' only, such as a concierge service and a co-working space that is suitable for both business and relaxation.

THE DEVELOPMENT

Occupying a prime south-facing position on the banks of the River Kennet, Huntley Wharf is a new landmark in Reading.

Three contemporary apartment buildings – Discovery House, Baker's Yard and Olivers Place – frame the tranquil central gardens and Riverside Square which leads down to the river. This is urban waterside living at its finest, a place to enjoy a relaxed way of life within a thriving, friendly community, yet just a short walk from the dynamic energy of Reading town centre. It is the perfect lifestyle choice.

THE ARCHITECT'S VISION

Huntley Wharf is designed by PRP, a long established architectural firm with over 100 awards to its name and an exemplary track record of creative approaches to schemes of varying scale, complexity and diversity.

Drawing on its industrial heritage - the site of the old Huntley & Palmers biscuit factory - the design of Huntley Wharf has been inspired by the same style of brickwork and heights of the original buildings, with interesting roof shapes and angles reflecting the tops of the former factory.

Huntley Wharf will create a new residential quarter that pays homage to the site's Victorian heritage whilst unlocking the potential of its riverside location for everyone.

Our vision for the site is to create a development that is oriented around a high-quality public space that caters for leisure, events and restaurants, providing Reading with a dynamic new riverside living quarter.

The site itself has a rich and illustrious heritage, once the home to the world-renowned Huntley & Palmer biscuit manufacturer, one of the first global export companies and purveyor to Royalty.

HISTORY & HERITAGE

Huntley Wharf stands on the site of Huntley & Palmer's biscuit factory, once a landmark building for visitors to Reading.

Joseph Huntley started making biscuits in a small shop in Reading in 1822, selling his produce to hungry coach travellers passing through the town. George Palmer joined the firm in 1841, and soon they purchased the site of a former silk mill on the River Kennet to build a new factory. By 1898, the company employed more than 5,000 people, producing millions of biscuits every day.

It was the largest biscuit factory in the world and even had its own sidings on the Reading-London train line, such was the worldwide demand for their products. Huntley & Palmer became one of the first brands, shipping biscuits around the globe in decorated tins that are now highly collectable.

The company was key to Reading's evolution as an economic powerhouse. In homage to this illustrious heritage, our architects have designed Huntley Wharf to reflect the architecture of the original factory.

Green living and sustainable development is top of our agenda

As a company, we are committed to reducing energy, water and waste on our construction sites, in our offices and in the homes that we build. Almost all of our developments are built on brownfield land and we always take care to protect and enhance biodiversity and natural habitats. Our homes include features to encourage sustainable living such as dual-flush WCs, recycling bins and energy efficient white goods.

Quality is at the heart of everything we do

At Berkeley, quality takes precedence, from choosing the right location and style of home, to the construction processes we practice, the materials we use and the specifications we put into our homes. For extra peace of mind, in addition to the 10-year warranty all new homes receive, Berkeley operates a 2-year policy with dedicated Customer Service teams on hand 24 hours a day to deal with enquiries quickly and effectively.

Unparalleled choice of homes in the most sought after locations

As one of the UK's leading house builders, we are able to offer our customers an unrivalled choice of property location, size and type. From city penthouses to country retreats, modern studio apartments to traditional family homes, you will find the perfect home to match your requirements. Our homes are also built in some of Britain's most desirable locations from market towns and rural villages to major towns and cities, and countryside to the coast – we build in the locations you want to live.

A commitment to creating sustainable communities

Berkeley's homes and developments are not just built for today. They are designed to enhance the neighbourhoods in which they are located permanently. We achieve this through our commitment to excellence in design, sensitive landscaping, sympathetic restoration, and impeccable standards of sustainability. We aim to address the needs not only of our customers but their neighbours and the broader community of which they are a part. It is a long-term view: we want to create exceptional places for people to live, work and relax in, and build communities that will thrive today and for years to come.

OUR COMMITMENT TO THE FUTURE

Our Vision is Berkeley's strategic plan for the business, designed to raise standards higher still. Our goal is to be a world-class business, defined by the quality of the places we create, generating long-term value and having a positive impact on society.

We take our responsibilities towards our customers, the environment, our workforce and the communities in which we work very seriously. Our plan for the business has five areas of strategic focus:

Customers, Homes, Places, Operations and Our People.

Our vision

To be a world-class business, defined by the quality of the places we create, generating long-term value and having a positive impact on society.

An exceptional customer experience

We put customers at the heart of our decisions. Dedicated sales teams will provide exceptional service throughout the buying process, and teams will manage the customer relationship from exchange of contracts through to completion, delivery of the new home and after occupancy.

High quality homes

We aim to build high quality, well-designed homes with low environmental impact, where customers have the opportunity to achieve healthy, comfortable and sustainable lifestyles, now and in the future. Attention to detail in design is paramount to ensure our homes meet the needs of our customers.

Great places

We seek to create strong communities where people choose to live, work and spend their time and which directly encourage people's wellbeing and quality of life. These are places characterised by the quality of their design, external spaces, transport and access to jobs and amenities.

Efficient and considerate operations

We reduce the impact of the construction process on the local community by registering all of our sites with the Considerate Constructors Scheme. We set targets to reduce water, energy and waste. We work with our supply chain to ensure high quality services and materials are consistently provided.

A commitment to people and safety

The safety, health, wellbeing and development of our people is a high priority. We aim to have a positive impact on society through our support of the Berkeley Foundation.

The Berkeley Foundation

We set up the Berkeley Foundation in 2011. It supports voluntary sector organisations to improve people's lives in the communities where we work, and last year worked with 49 different organisations and their beneficiaries.

Our staff have been instrumental in making the Foundation grow, with over 60% getting involved last year and raising over £935k. They also give their time and skills, for example by mentoring young people to help them become more confident and job ready.

Since its launch, the Foundation has committed over £14.9 million to more than 100 charities and worthy causes. Berkeley Group covers all overhead costs, so all money raised goes directly to charitable causes.

berkeleygroup.co.uk

At Huntley Wharf, environmental sustainability means managing and minimising the environmental impact from our operations and delivering homes and communities that are environmentally sound, as well as being designed and built to a high quality.

SUSTAINABILITY

Berkeley is committed to sustainable, energy efficient development from recycling of construction and office waste to the use of sustainably sourced materials. The cornerstone of our approach is to reduce the resources used at the development during construction and occupation and enhance the site's ecological features and assets.

Energy efficiency

Berkeley adopts a 'Fabric First' approach, this is about designing new build homes with energy efficiency and sustainability in mind – from heating and lighting, down to the insulation used. 'Fabric First' includes an enhanced insulation which is used for the floors, walls, roofs and windows, which keeps more heat in. Each new build home has a high air-tightness target which means less heat is lost, making the home more energy efficient. Thereby, reducing the long-term energy demands and carbon footprint of the site.

Additional features include:

- A+ rating to fridges, freezers and dishwashers
- Low energy lighting is installed throughout all homes and externally.

Waste

All homes are provided with internal recycling bins within the kitchen areas to encourage the segregation of waste, in addition to the required external bins.

Water

Water reduction methods will be implemented, such as dual flush WCs and flow regulated / aerated taps and showers.

Sustainable transport

Positioned in the heart of Reading the town is easily accessible on foot or bicycle. The town's mainline station links to all areas of the UK including Birmingham, Exeter, Bristol, Southampton and London. Crossrail is also forthcoming, allowing for even faster connections to key locations across London and beyond. Reading also boasts an award-winning bus company. A cycle lane runs along the riverfront connecting the site to the town centre and local riverside villages of Sonning and Henley. Secure cycle parking facilities allow for easy storage for bikes.

Community facilities

Huntley Wharf is created for the community and areas are designed to encourage everyday interaction and for seasonal and cultural events.

Supporting the natural world

Designed to support the existing nature of the River Kennet including the Otters around Chocolate Island, Huntley Wharf's own planting schemes are created to encourage bees, birds, butterflies and ecosystems of the natural world.
