GLEBELANDS SCHOOL

Respect and Achieve

The teachers at Glebelands believe they can, and do, make a difference to the lives of students they teach so that the young people who pass through the school leave as happy, confident individuals who have developed the skills to lead fulfilling lives and make a positive contribution to society. Relationships between all members of our school community are based on respect – respect for themselves, respect for others, respect for the environment and respect for learning.

The school is split into year groups, with each year supported by six tutors and a Head of Achievement who stays with students throughout their time at Glebelands. In this way, staff get to know students well and support their progress academically, socially and emotionally, helping them to become self-reflecting and motivated learners.

Glebelands School is located in the heart of Cranleigh and only 1.4 miles from Leighwood Fields.
