A ROYAL RETREAT

Watford is a relatively new town. Invented in 1894 by Queen Victoria who wanted to create a summer retreat for herself.

05 TAKE A SEAT!

In the 1950's and 1960's, Watford was home to the British furniture designer and manufacturer, Hille.

Robin Day was without doubt one of the most influential British furniture designers of the 20th century. At their premises on St Albans Road, the polypropylene moulded stacking chairs was conceived, selling around 50 million units since the launch of the Poly side chair in 1963.

The only Englishman to ever become Pope. Pope Adrian IV, was born Nicholas Breakspear in Abbots Langley in 1100 AD.

CATHERINE OF ARAGON

Following the annulment of her marriage to Henry VIII in 1533, Catherine of Aragon lived at the Manor of the More, a 16th century palace in Rickmansworth.

BERRY BLISS

It is said that the commercial strawberry – a hybrid of the European strawberry and a Chilean species – was first cultivated in the kitchen gardens of Moor Park Mansion.

THE CROQUET CHRONICLES

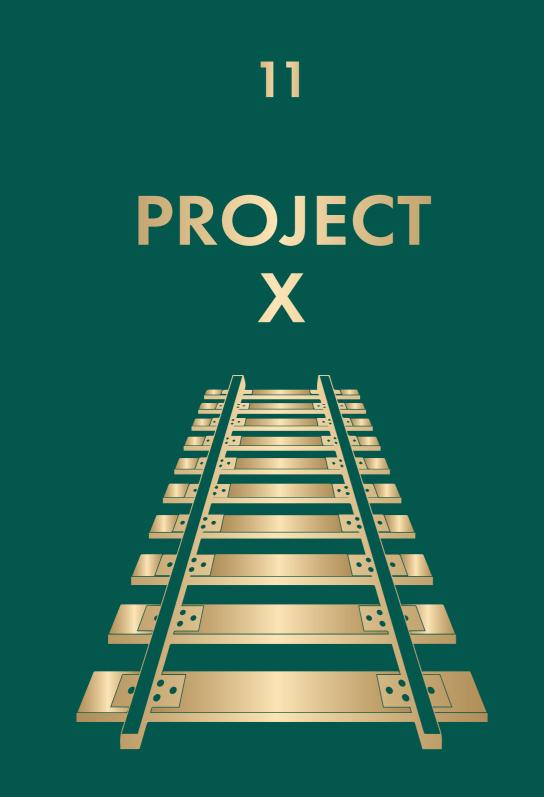

In the 1860s, the gardens of Cassiobury House were one of the first places in Britain in which croquet was played.
